

UAF One Health Update

Where are we now and where can we go?

ONE HEALTH

University of Alaska Fairbanks

One Health One Future 2019: Goals

- Build relationships leading to cross-disciplinary collaboration
- Look through a One Health lens
- Prioritize One Health issues
- Begin to operationalize One Health through research education and outreach working groups
- Build support
- Prepare for 2020

ONE HEALTH

University of Alaska Fairbanks

One Health One Future 2019: Agenda

- Friday
 - Keynote and overviews
 - Coffee break
 - Keynote and overviews
 - Reception
- Saturday
 - Plenary panel
 - Coffee break
 - Morning Breakout- prioritizing One Health
 - Lunch
 - Afternoon Breakout- working group development

ONE HEALTH

University of Alaska Fairbanks

One Health One Future 2019 Working Groups

Air Quality

Chronic Disease and Cancer

Contaminant Surveillance and Bio-Monitoring

Data Management and Sharing/Dissemination

Food Safety and Security

Mental Health and Well being

One Health and Built Infrastructure

One Health and Policy

One Health in Education and Communication/Translation Research

Water Safety and Security

Zoonotic Diseases

ONE HEALTH

University of Alaska Fairbanks

One Health One Future 2020

- Potential partnership with US Dept of State
 - Workshop on Influenza
 - Invitation to Arctic Council WGs
- Themes centered on 2019 working group topics
- Keynotes, abstracts, posters and student presentations
- Applying for CE credit
- Cultural presentations

ONE HEALTH

University of Alaska Fairbanks

One Health One Future 2020

- For updated information see our website: uaf.edu/onehealth or

Contact Kelsey Gordon at klgordon2@Alaska.edu

(907) 474-6610

ONE HEALTH

University of Alaska Fairbanks

Other updates

- Our Initiative has become a center! - The UAF Center for One Health Research (COHR)
- One Health Masters
 - Approved by Faculty Senate
 - Goes before BOR for approval this summer
 - Hope to take first students Fall 2020

ONE HEALTH

University of Alaska Fairbanks